Re: United States v. Carl Wilbright, 20 Cr. 667 (VEC)

Dear Judge Caproni:

I represent Carl Wilbright in the above-referenced matter. I move the Court, with the government's consent, to modify the terms of his personal recognizance bond to permit his travel to New Jersey to visit his grandchildren.

If granted, Mr. Wilbright intends to travel to New Jersey by car on the weekends to visit his grandchildren but will continue to reside in New York. The details of the location of the house where he will be visiting his family will be provided to Pretrial Services. As noted above, the government consent to this request.

Accordingly, I respectfully request that Mr. Wilbright's bond be modified to permit his travel to and from New Jersey.

Respectfully submitted,

César de Castro

Application GRANTED.

SO ORDERED.
